

SHEERLUXE

SHEERLUXE

INTERIOR DESIGN / 04 JUNE 2024

The New Interiors Collaborations To Know About

When two creative minds come together, the result can be pretty special – especially in the interiors world. From playful lighting to bold rugs, these are the latest collaborations we're loving...

BY GEORGINA BLASKEY / Save To My Favourites

Jessica Buckley Interiors x Imprint Cast

Jessica Buckley Interiors and Imprint Casts have successfully created beautiful, bespoke collection of botanical friezes called 'Seasonal Still Life'. Inspired by the duo's love of botanics, the artworks pay homage to the collections amassed by erudite grand tourists of the 17th and 18th centuries. Katy has built this collection of over 25 works (ranging from 10cm-80cm in size) over the past two years using home-grown flowers from her mother's garden. Plus, every piece has been lovingly handcrafted from start to finish using a specialist casting process.

Visit ShopJessicaBuckley.co.uk

Arteriors x Laura Kirar

Laura Kirar's collection for Arteriors highlights the beauty of raw materials, natural elements and the originality and creativity of the designer herself. Having always been inspired by art, architecture, fashion, and nature, the result is an organic collection entwines natural materials into striking designs with sculptural qualities. Starting with a fragment, sketch or even just a memory, Laura takes an idea and commits it to paper or sometimes even to clay – celebrating fine craftsmanship with her thoughtful attention to detail.

Visit ArteriorsHome.com

Sanderson x Giles Deacon

Giles Deacon, the London-based couture designer and illustrator, has developed a unique collection of fabrics and wallpapers with Sanderson, incorporating commissioned artworks and new iterations of archival jacquards and prints from his own studio and the Sanderson archive. Harnessing medieval influences and referencing Greek mythology, this collection is all about embracing nostalgia. Choose from prints, embroideries, velvets and wallcoverings.

Visit Sanderson.SandersonDesignGroup.com

Alvaro Picardo x Oakley Moore

Spanish designer Alvaro Picardo and British interior designer Kate Aslangul of Oakley Moore Studio have launched a new lampshade collection. Sharing a mutual love of colour and bespoke design, the duo's collaboration features two delicate designs names Fireworks and Ribbons. These charming lampshades are meticulously hand-perforated and hand-painted to ensure each piece is unique. The resulting collection is a striking combination of Kate's eye for pattern and colour, and Alvaro's fashionably bold graphics.

Visit Shop.OakleyMoore.com

Wondering People x Casa Veronica

In collaboration with Texas-based design studio Casa Veronica – founded by Veronica Ortuño – art collective Wondering People has put together an exclusive collection of characterful lamps designed to brighten up your home. With colourways curated exclusively by Wondering People, these one-of-a-kind hand-crafted lamps will give any interior a unique touch.

Visit WonderingPeople.com

Hadedá x Michael Chandler

Capetonian artist Michael Chandler – who recently received international acclaim for his mural on fashion brand Cult Gaia’s Miami storefront – has designed a selection of ginger jars exclusively for Hadedá. Inspired by the Cape – specifically its history, people and natural beauty – Michael has put his signature spin on the traditional medium of blue and white porcelain. Crafted with care and detailed with hand-painted motifs featuring South African flora, think of these pieces as a modern interpretation of traditional Delftware.

Visit Hadedá.co.uk