

HOUSE & GARDEN

The best of The List: Lighting

Our favourite lighting designs from members of The List. From dramatic chandeliers and vintage lampshades to well-matched pendant lights and stylish table lamps

By Charlotte Richmond
24 April 2023

Bright ideas and lighting inspiration for your home, everything from statement lamps to stylish pendants, from our favourite member of The List.

Looking for a design professional? Our indispensable online guide can help. Whether you're searching for an interior designer, architect, garden designer or more, look no further...

1/16

Porta Romana

Porta Romana began life in 1988 from a tiny London workshop. From the beginning, the ambition was to create beautiful and inspiring lighting and furniture that would be loved. Good fortune came in finding skilled British craftspeople to create those quirky and original designs. Over the past three decades the Porta Romana brand has become synonymous with timeless and elegant style made to the highest of standards. Visit Porta Romana on The List to find out more.

2/16

Birdie Fortescue

This stylish lamp base by Birdie Fortescue was inspired by modernist sculpture. Learn more about Birdie by visiting her profile.

3/16

Pinch

We love this large light sculpted from layers of banana fibre, draped and stitched around the central light by Pinch. Visit their profile on The List for more information here.

4/16

Beauvamp

Beauvamp's hand-sewn Tiffany Lampshade in a sheer Volga linen in Parma Grey. Learn more about Beauvamp on The List.

5/16

The Soho Lighting Company

From independent lighting consultancy to light piece design and room illumination, The Soho Lighting Company set out to harness and integrate exquisitely designed, timeless handmade lights, switches and sockets with modern, efficient lighting technology. Visit The Soho Lighting Company on The List here.

6/16

Rosi de Ruig

From her west London studio, Rosi de Ruig creates a collection of handmade paper lampshades, working with a wide range of colourful and original marbled, recycled and reproduction papers to make distinctive and unique lampshades. Find Rosi de Ruig's profile on The List here.

7/16

Sarah Blomfield

Sarah Blomfield creates bespoke lampshades painted by hand to complement any room, like this one by Oakley Moore Interior Design.

8/16

Cameron Design House

We love this Haara Ten chandelier in polished brass, made up of seventeen cylindrical lanterns from hand-drawn glass by Cameron Design House. See their profile on The List here.

9/16

Matthew Cox

Following in the footsteps of his father and grandfather, Matthew Cox leapt into the world of decorative antiques and set up his business between west London and Stamford in 1997. Each table or chair, cupboard or cabinet, lantern or mirror is made by hand in England, from natural materials meticulously selected to meet the individual brief. Find Matthew Cox's profile on The List here.

10/16

Ochre

The Gaia two-tier pendant by Ochre features solid glass drops illuminated by LEDs. Learn more about Ochre by visiting their profile on The List.

Tom St Aubyn

11/16

Kate Beard Lighting

In this project, Kate Beard Lighting enhanced the architecture of this living room through clever use of lighting.

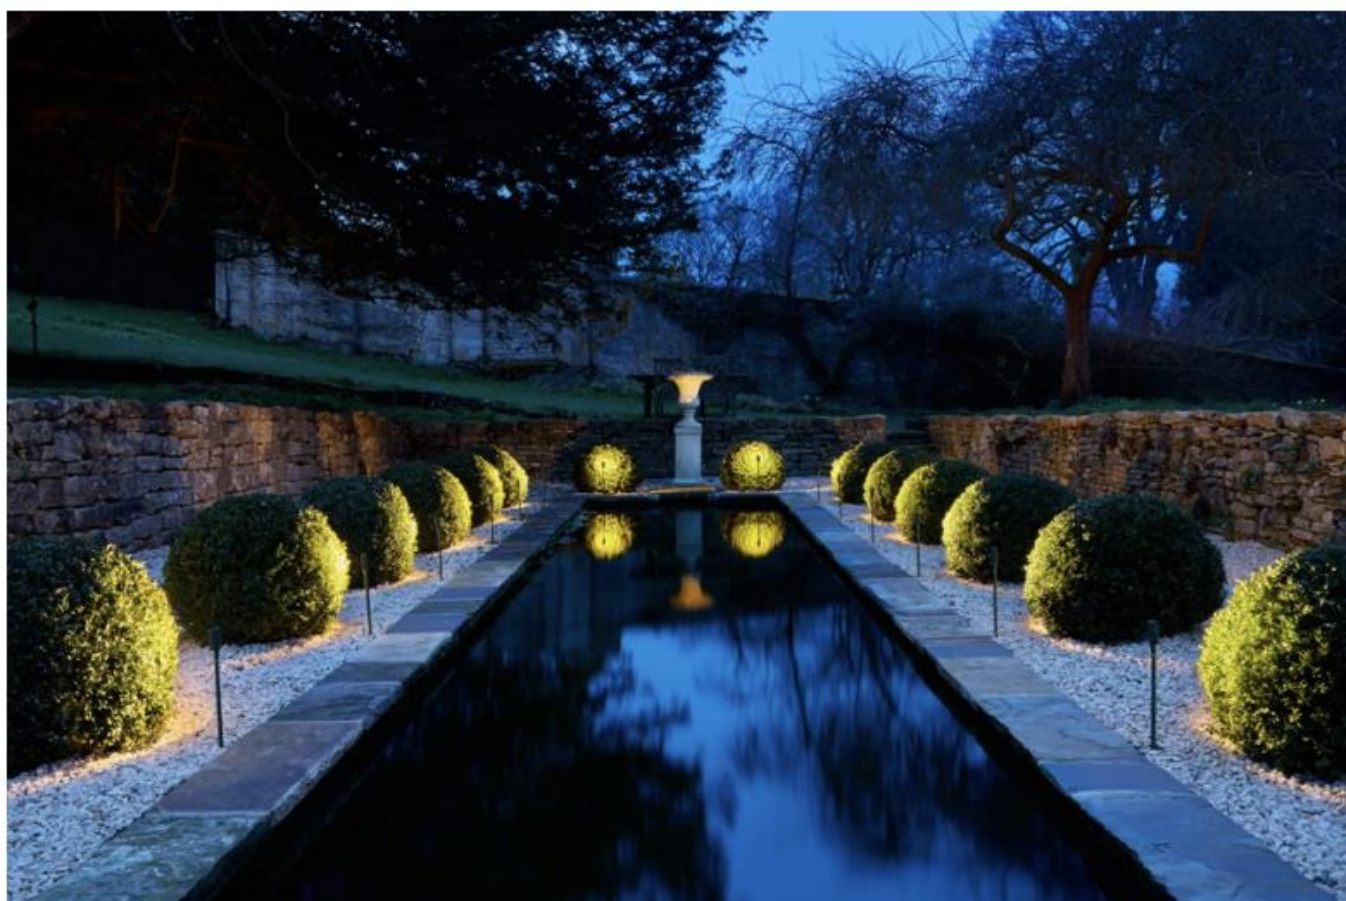

Simon Upton

12/16

Jamb

We love this dining room featuring Jamb's striking Apsley copper lights, Cruxton table and Cobblers stools. Find Jamb on The List here.

13/16

John Cullen Lighting

John Cullen Lighting highlighted key features throughout this garden, including the front and back façades, covered walkways, sculptures and the old Victorian pool.

Unknown

14/16

Charles Edwards

15/16

David Hunt Lighting

The Botany Table Lamp by David Hunt Lighting creates a wonderfully whimsical look which pairs perfectly with The Light Shade Studio's bespoke pleated shades.

16/16

HUB Architects

The lighting design for this project by HUB Architects included a scattering of flush wall lights that created an airy and uplifting effect.

---

TOPICS

THE LIST

---